MEDIA ADVISORY

Live Jazz on Scottsdale's Main Street – Every Saturday Afternoon

Standout saxophonist Mary Petrich headlines "Jazz on Main Street" with her happening trio!

NEWS: The Scottsdale Arts District will be featuring "Jazz on Main Street" every Saturday afternoon through April, presented by Main Street Galleries and the Scottsdale Gallery Association in conjunction with the City of Scottsdale. The tasty new pairing of cool jazz with fine art and great cuisine (dozens of awesome restaurants also nearby) starts Saturday, February 2.

WHO: The Mary Petrich Trio will hold forth noon to 4pm with great, straight-ahead jazz and standards. Petrich is one of the Valley's most accomplished and appealing tenor saxophonists, and she leads a stellar group.

WHEN: Every Saturday, noon to 4pm, thru April 2013

WHERE: Along the 7100 block of Main Street in downtown Scottsdale, just west of famed Scottsdale Road and two blocks south of Indian School Road along the famed route known as the Scottsdale ArtWalk. The area is lined by many of Scottsdale's finest art galleries, including American Fine Art Editions, Biltmore Galleries, Esses Rare Objects, French Designer Jeweler, Gallery Russia, Joan Cawley Gallery, The Legacy Gallery, Mainview Gallery, Marshall-LeKAE Gallery, May Gallery, Mystique Fine Art, Open Range Gallery, Overland Gallery, Paul Scott Gallery, Pejman Gallery, Scottsdale Fine Art, The Shorr Gallery & Romanov Fine Jeweler, The Signature Gallery and Trailside Galleries. An array of popular restaurants are nearby.

WHY: Local galleries conceived the new entertainment as a fun way to share the cool Arts District vibe with people from all "walks." "Jazz on Main Street" is a great new reason to visit downtown and enjoy its unique "triple threat" of outstanding fine art, wonderful restaurants and outstanding music – all in one place!
